

Reading Challenge for Year 7- how many of these books can you read?

Title	Overview:	What did you think?
'The Island at the end of Everything' by Karen Millwood Hargrave 	This book is from the author of THE GIRL OF INK & STARS, winner of the Waterstones Children's Book Prize 2017' Genre: Historical fiction- Set in the early 20th Century, this is a tale of leprosy, displacement, longing and hope. It certainly makes you think!
'The Dark is Rising' by Susan Cooper 	Genre: Horror for young adults. The fate of the world- and the power to defeat evil- lies within the protagonist of this sinister tale.
'War Horse' by Michael Morpurgo 	This is a must read... set during the First World War, it tells the tale of one horse who witnesses the war from both sides of the trenches and sees the best and worst of mankind.
'The Secret Diary of Adrian Mole 13 and 3/4' by Sue Townsend 	Genre: Humorous fiction. This will make you laugh out loud on more than one occasion!
'The Sword in the Stone' by T.H. White 	Genre: Fantasy Set in Medieval England where the legends of Merlin and King Arthur are just getting started.
'Pig Heart Boy' by Malorie Blackman 	"A bizarre yet strangely realistic book . . . The plot is well developed with many unexpected twists" (The Times) Written by the author of Noughts and Crosses.
The Graveyard Book' by Neil Gaiman 	This is an easy read that will have your attention from the first chapter. It is a tale of a young boy who is brought up by ghosts and ghouls in the graveyard...	